Dark Echo by F.G. Cottam - Goodreads
F.G.Cottam never fails to entertain. I loved Dark Echo a truly creepy ghost story set on and around a boat called Dark Echo which has a truly horrific past, previously it's owners have been beset by tragedy and it's original builder, Harry Spalding is a man of hidden depths and his story is indelibly stained on the boats wooden planks.

F.G.Cottam has written a number of books, so I expect he has his style and pose and has stuck with it, but there were a number of times where the story just went on and on, and the narrative didn't add anything to the story at all. For example, Suzanne walking the streets of a small town in Ireland, for pages and pages.
