Eternal (Jan Fabel, book 3) by Craig Russell
'We are eternal.' The Buddhists believe that each life, each consciousness, is like a single candle flame, but that there is a continuity between each flame. Imagine lighting one candle with the flame of another, then using that flame to light the next, and that to light the next, and on and on forever. A thousand flames, all passed from one to another across the generations. Each is a

Eternal (Jan Fabel, #3) by Craig Russell

Eternal is the third in the series featuring Hamburg detective Jan Fabel. In an attempt to learn how it's done, I have read a number of crime novels by different British and American authors set in foreign countries.
