HOUSE OF THE RISING SUN is the first book in the Crescent City series, and we reconnect with some characters we had previously encountered in the House of Comarr series. As usual, Ms. Painter's world building is exemplary, her writing is effortless and breezy, and she crafts a solid story with interesting plot twists; her descriptions are as vivid as the (splendid!) cover. The characters

House of the Rising Sun (Crescent City, #1) by Kristen Painter

Kristen Painter's House of the Rising Sun is the first book in her Crescent City series, a spinoff of her House of Comarre series. It's been awhile since I last read those books, but the best part about a spinoff series is that you don't always need to have read the first series, although it is HIGHLY recommended!

House of the rising sun Great new spin on the paranormal. Narration by a male for so many female voices was sometimes distracting but other than that I thought it has all the makings of a great new series by a great author we all love. I hope you enjoy it!!!!

The House of the Rising Sun - Wikipedia

"The House of the Rising Sun" is a traditional folk song, sometimes called "Rising Sun Blues". It tells of a life gone wrong in New Orleans; many versions also urge a sibling or parents and children to avoid the same fate. The most successful commercial version, recorded in 1964 by British rock group The Animals, was a number one hit on the UK Singles Chart and also in the United States and France. As a traditional folk song recorded by an electric rock band, it has been described as the "first
