Immortal Coil by Jeffrey Lang - Goodreads
Immortal Coil does a really good job of capturing Data's characterization - his thoughts, his actions, his humor, his emotional response, his android-ness, etc. I appreciated the thoughts and ideas that Lang attempted to explore in this story, especially in reference to the Original Series episodes.

Immortal Coil by Jeffrey Lang: The first book mentioned when the question of a good Data novel comes up. Chock full of continuity references not just to TNG but also to TOS, however, drawing a line from Roger Korby to Noonian Soong and establishing a vast Star Trek android saga.

TNG: Immortal Coil by Jeffrey Lang Review Thread \(Spoilers ...

Lang treats the reader to brilliant insight into the character of Data through his emotional exploration and unique inner thought processes. A favorite scene of mine from the book is the flashback to Soong's past that takes Data just a handful of milliseconds to experience.
