Jon Skovron | Man Made Boy

Man Made Boy His name, believe it or not, is Boy. Boy is (among other things): seventeen years old; a genius computer hacker on the brink of creating an artificial intelligence; and obsessed with a girl.

Man Made Boy (Man Made Boy #1) by Jon Skovron

Man Made Boy by Jon Skovron is definitely a unique read. It stars Boy, the son of Monster Frankenstein and Bride of Frankenstein. He resides in a troupe of otherworldly creatures, including Medusa and a troll girl that he's in love with. Boy is a talented hacker, but what he wants most of all is to go and live in the human world. At the same time, he creates a program, his masterpiece, that

Review: Man Made Boy by Jon Skovron YA Midnight Reads

Man Made Boy is many things and genres. A retelling, fantasy, romance, humorous and contemporary. However behind all this, Man Made Boy is a coming of age novel. Highly entertaining and relatable, Jon Skovron weaves a story suitable for all ages. While I would say more boys would love this, I still think anyone could fall in love.

Man Made Boy (Audiobook) by Jon Skovron | Audible.com

The story made me laugh, cry, feel good, feel bad – it just tugged at my heart, and somehow Jon made monsters seem “normal” and Boy was just your “average teenager” (except that he wasn’t - something Jon managed to balance quite well). I absolutely loved the way the story wrapped up - it was perfect. There was loss and worthwhile sacrifice along with love and hope. I finished the book happily.
