Positive Time-Out | Positive Discipline

When children are sent to punitive time-out, they are likely to be thinking, "I won't get caught next time," "I'll get even." Or, worst of all, "I'm bad." This is why the NAEYC (National Association for the Education of Young Children) is very much against punitive time-out. Positive Time-Out. Positive time-out is totally different. A child (or students in a classroom) design a "positive time-out area" filled with pleasant things to help them calm down until they can access their rational
