The Appetites of Girls by Pamela Moses - Goodreads
The Appetites of Girls by Pamela Moses was a great read.
It chronicles the life of four women: Ruth, Francesca, Opal, and Setsu, who each have their own struggles with family, love, and relationships. Intertwined with this, of course, is food, which plays an important role in their transitions from girl to adulthood. These four women meet in college, and from thereon after, remain close with

Book Review The Appetites of Girls by Pamela Moses
...

The Appetites of Girls is the type of novel that holds a mirror up in front of a reader. It challenges readers to recognize certain characteristics and attitudes of the girls as their own. The story though is not all about self-examination as it also is a biting commentary on the pressure society puts on women to look and act according to arbitrarily chosen ideals. That the girls are able to
