Too Dangerous To Desire by Alexandra Benedict is the follow-up to Too Great A Temptation which I enjoyed very much so I was happy to get a chance to hopefully check in with some of the same characters and see how they were getting along. And the male lead for this book promised to be one of those tortured heroes we all love to love!

Book review: Alexandra Benedict's "Too Dangerous to Desire"

Too Dangerous to Desire is a reasonable read with a variety of situations and an interesting cast of characters, some of whom have clearly been in an earlier novel. At times there is something childlike about the writing style; scenes feel quite short, and moments of drama are over fairly quickly. Adam's tortured nature is well-written, although Evie's character is a little harder to get into.
